

Course code	IBSRDL624
Course name	Marine Trash and Debris Awareness (OSHA)
Duration	20 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Define marine trash and debris and identify common sources LO2: Identify the destination of marine trash and debris LO3: Explain the risk marine trash and debris pose to the environment LO4: Describe common causes of marine trash and debris LO5: Explain laws and regulations and preventative measures that stop trash and debris from entering the water
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. In this course you will learn about different types of marine trash and debris. You will be able to identify common sources and destinations of marine trash and debris and explain the risk posed to the environment. You will also be able to explain the laws, regulations and preventative measures that prevent trash and debris from polluting the waterways.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.