

MBSRDL003

STCW Security Awareness

---

Duration	120 minutes
-----------------	-------------

---

Target group	Maritime Industry
---------------------	-------------------

---

Prerequisites	No training prerequisites are required to sit this course. Prior to commencing the course, all candidates are required to supply a date of birth.
----------------------	--

---

Objective	LO1: List the current maritime security threats LO2: Define the different maritime security threats <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•United nations definitions of piracy and armed robbery</li><li>•Threat overview</li><li>•Terrorism</li><li>•Smuggling</li><li>•Stowaways and refugees</li><li>•Cargo theft</li></ul> LO3: Explain the basic functions of ports LO4: Provide an overview of the key maritime security roles LO5: Explain how SOLAS and MARPOL started LO6: Detail Resolution A.545 LO7: Detail Resolution A.924 LO8: Explain the relevant Safety of Life at Sea Convention (SOLAS) requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•SOLAS amendments</li><li>•SOLAS chapter V</li><li>•SOLAS Chapter XI</li></ul> LO9: Explain the International Ship in Port Facility Security (ISPS) code LO10: Explain the STCW 2010 Amendments LO11: Explain the IMO Circular 1334 LO12: Explain the important roles relevant to maritime security <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•Contracting Government</li><li>•Captain of the Port</li><li>•The Area Maritime Security Committee</li><li>•Company</li><li>•Company Security Officer</li><li>•Ship Security Officer</li><li>•Seafarers with Designated Security Duties</li><li>•Port Facility</li><li>•Port Facility Security Officer</li><li>•Port Facility Personnel with Designated Security Duties</li><li>•Local, State and Federal Law Enforcement Agencies</li></ul> LO13: Explain the different weapons that can be used in maritime security incidents <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•Edged weapons</li><li>•Guns</li><li>•Explosives</li></ul> LO14: Explain how hazardous materials can be involved in maritime security incidents LO15: Detail where dangerous good are likely to be found in maritime environments LO16: Define and explain suspicious activity <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•Definition of Suspicious Activity</li><li>•Profiling</li><li>•Examples of Suspicious Activity</li></ul>
------------------	--

---

LO17: Explain how and when to report suspicious behaviour
LO18: List the different security equipment used in maritime environments
LO19: Explain the common elements of pirate attacks
LO20: Explain the common elements of armed robberies
LO21: Explain existing security levels
•MARSEC level 1
•MARSEC level 2
•MARSEC level 3
LO22: Explain security actions in the event of piracy
•Ship Security Actions for Piracy
•Ship Security Actions with pirates Onboard
•Piracy/Robbery Rescue Operations
LO23: State which contingency plans should be created and what security situations should be considered
LO24: Explain the action to be taken in security situations
•Bomb threats
•Unidentified objects
•Explosions (without warning)
•Stowaways
•Security Drills
LO25: Explain how to report security incidents
LO26: Explain the regulations related to emergency drills

---

Contents

The course is available in the following languages: English; Danish; Norwegian
This security awareness course is designed to provide seafarers without designated security duties, as per ship security plan, with the necessary knowledge to effectively assist with ship security.

---

Exam

The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.