

| | |
|----------------------|---|
| Course code | IBSRDL604 |
| Course name | Benzene Awareness (OSHA) |
| Duration | 20 Minutes |
| Target group | Oil & Gas Industry |
| Prerequisites | No prerequisites are required to sit this course. |
| Objective | LO1: Define benzene and describe where it can commonly be found LO2: Identify sources of benzene LO3: Outline potential health effects LO4: Describe types of exposure and associated symptoms LO5: Review an accident case study LO6: Outline relevant OSHA regulations LO7: Identify when to use benzene warning signs LO8: Describe controls that are used to prevent accidents |
| Contents | The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. 29 CFR 1910.1028 In this course you will learn about the dangers of benzene, including health issues and symptoms of exposure. You will review a case study and the latest OSHA guidance. You will also describe controls that are used to protect workers. |
| Exam | The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration. |