

MBSRDL003

Security Awareness - STCW Standards (no flag state approval)

Duration 120 minutes

Target group Maritime Industry

Prerequisites No training prerequisites are required to sit this course. Prior to commencing the course, all candidates are required to supply a date of birth.

Objective

- LO1: List the current maritime security threats
- LO2: Define the different maritime security threats
 - United nations definitions of piracy and armed robbery
 - Threat overview
 - Terrorism
 - Smuggling
 - Stowaways and refugees
 - Cargo theft
- LO3: Explain the basic functions of ports
- LO4: Provide an overview of the key maritime security roles
- LO5: Explain how SOLAS and MARPOL started
- LO6: Detail Resolution A.545
- LO7: Detail Resolution A.924
- LO8: Explain the relevant Safety of Life at Sea Convention (SOLAS) requirements
 - SOLAS amendments
 - SOLAS chapter V
 - SOLAS Chapter XI
- LO9: Explain the International Ship in Port Facility Security (ISPS) code
- LO10: Explain the STCW 2010 Amendments
- LO11: Explain the IMO Circular 1334
- LO12: Explain the important roles relevant to maritime security
 - Contracting Government
 - Captain of the Port
 - The Area Maritime Security Committee
 - Company
 - Company Security Officer
 - Ship Security Officer
 - Seafarers with Designated Security Duties
 - Port Facility
 - Port Facility Security Officer
 - Port Facility Personnel with Designated Security Duties
 - Local, State and Federal Law Enforcement Agencies
- LO13: Explain the different weapons that can be used in maritime security incidents
 - Edged weapons
 - Guns
 - Explosives
- LO14: Explain how hazardous materials can be involved in maritime security incidents
- LO15: Detail where dangerous good are likely to be found in maritime environments
- LO16: Define and explain suspicious activity
 - Definition of Suspicious Activity
 - Profiling

- Examples of Suspicious Activity
- LO17: Explain how and when to report suspicious behaviour
- LO18: List the different security equipment used in maritime environments
- LO19: Explain the common elements of pirate attacks
- LO20: Explain the common elements of armed robberies
- LO21: Explain existing security levels
 - MARSEC level 1
 - MARSEC level 2
 - MARSEC level 3
- LO22: Explain security actions in the event of piracy
 - Ship Security Actions for Piracy
 - Ship Security Actions with pirates Onboard
 - Piracy/Robbery Rescue Operations
- LO23: State which contingency plans should be created and what security situations should be considered
- LO24: Explain the action to be taken in security situations
 - Bomb threats
 - Unidentified objects
 - Explosions (without warning)
 - Stowaways
 - Security Drills
- LO25: Explain how to report security incidents
- LO26: Explain the regulations related to emergency drills

Contents

The course is available in the following languages: English; Danish; Norwegian

This security awareness course is designed to provide seafarers without designated security duties, as per ship security plan, with the necessary knowledge to effectively assist with ship security. The course is aligned to STCW A-VI/6. The course or certificate is not flag state approved at this time.

Exam

The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.