

Course code	NSCRDL001
Course name	Nitrogen Awareness
Duration	30 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Describe the properties of air and nitrogen LO2: Explain why inert environments are dangerous LO3: Explain the inerting process & when nitrogen is used LO4: Describe draining, purging, venting LO5: Explain who is at risk LO6: Understand why multiple fatalities are more common LO7: Identify typical control measures for inert environments
Contents	The course is available in the following languages: English; Norwegian This course is suitable for anyone working with nitrogen and the inerting process in the oil and gas industry. The course will give you an understanding of the dangers that nitrogen poses, and the measures and processes used to control it.
Exam	This course is CPD approved. The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.