

Course code	IBSRDL633
Course name	Slips, Trips, and Falls Awareness (OSHA)
Duration	22 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Outline the risks associated with slips, trips and falls LO2: Identify common causes of slips, trips and falls and their controls LO3: Explain how to carefully carry objects LO4: Describe how to use good judgement to prevent falls LO5: Identify different types of safety railings LO6: Describe different types of falls LO7: Identify different types of fall protection systems LO8: Outline major fall hazards LO9: Describe how to safely use different types of ladders LO10: Describe how to safely use scaffolding
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. 29 CFR 1910.22 In this course you will learn about the risks associated with slips, trips and falls. You will be able to explain how to carefully carry objects and describe how to use good judgement to prevent falls. You will also be able to identify different types of safety railings. You will describe different types of falls and fall protection systems. You will outline major fall hazards and describe how to safely use ladders and scaffolds.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.