

Course code	OBSRDL011
Course name	Scaffolding Awareness
Duration	60 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Describe what a scaffold is and why it is used LO2: Define the key terms used in the construction of scaffolds LO3: Recognise the basic components of a scaffold LO4: Describe the key elements of a scaffold LO5: Identify the different types of scaffolding structures LO6: Identify hazards associated with the use of scaffolding LO7: List the basic tools used in the construction of a scaffold LO8: Describe the PPE requirements for scaffolding LO9: List the requirements for access to scaffolds LO10: Identify the responsibilities of key personnel involved with scaffolding LO11: Describe the use of the scafftags system LO12: Describe the importance of scaffold inspections
Contents	The course includes information on the basic tools used to construct scaffolds, the personal protective equipment required, the roles and responsibilities associated with scaffolding work, and the importance of inspections.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.