

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) for Wind Energy

Duration 45 minutes

Target group Personnel who will be working in the wind industry or related fields, and will carry out their duties in a wind turbine environment, usually in physical contact with a wind turbine or offshore wind structure.
Personnel that perform job functions that have been risk assessed by their employer or workplace, where training according to one or more modules of the BST standard may mitigate the identified risks.

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

Objective

- LO1: Explain the role of PPE in relation to the Hierarchy of Controls
- LO2: Describe your responsibilities relating to PPE
- LO3: Identify suitable types of PPE for specific tasks
- LO4: Describe the types of PPE used to protect various parts of the body
- LO5: Explain the advantages and limitations of personal life-saving apparatus and PPE
- LO6: Explain how to inspect and fit harnesses
- LO7: Explain PPE designed for working at height
- LO8: Identify signage associated with PPE
- LO9: Describe how to correctly use, store and dispose of PPE

Contents This course will help you to understand the importance of PPE used in wind energy industry. You will learn about suitable types of PPE that can help keep yourself and others safe in the workplace and its maintenance and storage.

Exam The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.