

Course code	IBSRDL649
Course name	Hearing Conservation Awareness (OSHA)
Duration	20 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Identify signs and causes of hearing loss LO2: Explain how noise is measured LO3: Identify examples of engineering and administrative controls LO4: Explain the purpose and how to select and use hearing protection devices LO5: Explain the Permissible Exposure Limit and conservation methods
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. 29 CFR 1910.95 In this course you will learn about the signs and causes of hearing loss, and how noise is measured. You will be able to identify engineering and administrative controls and explain how to select and use hearing protection devices. You will also be able to explain the Permissible Exposure Limit (PEL) and conservation methods.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.