

Course code	OBSRDL011
Course name	Scaffolding Awareness
Duration	60 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Describe what a scaffold is and why it is used  LO2: Define the key terms used in the construction of scaffolds  LO3: Recognise the basic components of a scaffold  LO4: Describe the key elements of a scaffold  LO5: Identify the different types of scaffolding structures  LO6: Identify hazards associated with the use of scaffolding  LO7: List the basic tools used in the construction of a scaffold  LO8: Describe the PPE requirements for scaffolding  LO9: List the requirements for access to scaffolds  LO10: Identify the responsibilities of key personnel involved with scaffolding  LO11: Describe the use of the scafftags system  LO12: Describe the importance of scaffold inspections
Contents	The course includes information on the basic tools used to construct scaffolds, the personal protective equipment required, the roles and responsibilities associated with scaffolding work, and the importance of inspections.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.