

LBSRDL024

Water Management - Awareness

Duration	30 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Explain what wholesome water and potable water is LO2: Receiving water alongside (ex-pipe, road tankers) LO3: Receiving water from other vessels or barges LO4: Reverse Osmosis LO5: Evaporation LO6: Explain the various water treatment options (disinfection) available, including Chlorination, UV filtration, Silver Ionisation, Ultra-filtration LO7: Identify legislation applicable to water management LO8: Describe water management responsibilities for key job roles
Contents	The course is available in the following languages: English; Turkish. This awareness course is aimed at Medics, 2nd Engineers, Chief Officers or similar. Candidates will be able to identify basic components of water management systems. Significantly reducing the harm to the environment.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.