

MBS769

Dangerous Goods Awareness Training

Duration	1 Day
Target group	This course is aimed at personnel with responsibility of driving/sailing of vehicles carrying dangerous goods by road or sea or air.
Prerequisites	No Prerequisite is required.
Objective	On successful completion of this training, delegates will have basic understanding of the regulations for shipping dangerous goods by air, including their labelling, packing and stowage.
Contents	This course consists of: <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Definition of Dangerous goods•Regulations and legislation of governing dangerous goods by air•How to identify dangerous goods carried by passengers and crew•How to identify excepted and limited quantities•Classification of dangerous goods•Identify and meaning of subsidiary hazards risk•Packing groups and packaging•Types of labelling required for dangerous goods•International Air Transport Association (IATA) list of dangerous goods•Recall the shippers responsibility•Recall the documentation required for shipping dangerous goods by air•Requirement for loading and shipping dangerous goods by air•Identify emergency situations and how to deal with them•Incident and reporting procedures
Exam	On completion of this course, a written assessment will be taken.