

OBS704

Permit to work

Duration	1 Day
Target group	This course is designed for all personnel working in refinery facilities, onshore installations, industrial sector. It is typically designed for personnel who work in high risk area, work on live electrical systems, entry into confined spaces and some form of machinery maintenance work.
Prerequisites	No prior training is required by delegates attending this training course.
Objective	Hazard Identification is strongly recommended
Contents	This course will cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Introduction to health and safety•Health and safety law•Health•Safety•Welfare•The workplace and work equipment•Risk assessment•Manual handling•Hazardous substances•Ergonomics and work station design•Working at height•Transport and vehicles•Noise and vibration
Exam	On completion of this course, a written assessment will be taken.