

Course code	IBSRDL621
Course name	Job Safety Analysis Awareness (OSHA)
Duration	20 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Define Job Safety Analysis LO2: Describe the components of the Job Safety Analysis Process LO3: Identify methods used within the Hierarchy of Hazard Control LO4: Outline the benefits of using Job Safety Analysis Process LO5: Identify when to stop work and revise the Job Safety Analysis
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. In this course you will learn about the steps of the Job Safety Analysis Process. You will identify methods that can be used to control hazards according to the Hierarchy of Hazard Control. You will define when to stop work and revise the Job Safety Analysis
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.