

Course code	IBSRDL631
Course name	Scaffold Safety Awareness (OSHA)
Duration	22 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Describe types of scaffolding and the three categories of scaffold workers LO2: Identify controls for proper scaffold assembly and common types of scaffold related hazards LO3: Identify the elements of pre-job planning LO4: Describe how to use scaffold tags and secure the area LO5: Explain how to inspect a scaffold and secure a damaged scaffold LO6: Describe how to access a scaffold safely and use a rolling scaffold LO7: Identify emergency response procedures and types of fall protection
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. 29 CFR 1926.451 In this course you will learn about different types of scaffolding and the three categories of scaffold workers. You will be able to identify controls for scaffolding assembly and common types of hazards. You will identify elements of pre-job planning explain how to inspect a scaffold. You will also identify emergency response procedures and types of fall protection.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.