

OSPMY066

Dangerous Goods by Sea

Duration	2 Days
Target group	This course is intended for all those involved in sea and air industries and services connected with shipping, and contain advice on terminology, packaging, labeling, placarding, markings, stowage, segregation, handling, and emergency response action
Prerequisites	All delegates must be in possession of a valid medical certificate.
Objective	During the course delegates will gain knowledge on accessing and the use of IMDG Code as a source of reference and able to recognize, identify and handle the respective dangerous goods
Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>International Maritime Organization</li><li>IMDG Code</li><li>MARPOL 1973/78</li><li>Movement of hazardous wastes</li><li>Arrangement of IMDG Code</li><li>Legal Issues</li><li>Conventions</li><li>National Legislation</li><li>International Effect</li><li>Additional Legislation</li><li>What are Dangerous Goods?</li><li>Conditions for Sea Transport</li><li>Prohibited Substances</li><li>New substances</li><li>Classification &amp; Identification</li><li>Packing &amp; Stowage</li><li>Segregation</li><li>Documentation</li><li>Emergency Procedures</li></ul>

---

Exam

N/A