

Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH)

Duration 40 Minutes

Target group Oil & Gas Industry

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

Objective

- LO1: Explain what COSHH is & why we need it
- LO2: Explain the COSHH Regulations
- LO3: Describe the employer and employee duties under the COSHH regulations
- LO4: Identify how you may come into contact with a hazardous substance
- LO5: Explain what a Safety Data Sheet is
- LO6: Identify the COSHH hazard symbols
- LO7: Describe the different control measures that can be used
- LO8: Identify the personal protective equipment specific to chemical applications
- LO9: Describe a COSHH Risk Assessment
- LO10: Identify good practices related to COSHH

Contents

The course is available in the following languages: English; Bahasa Malay; Spanish; Indonesian; Thai; Turkish

This Control of Substances Hazardous to Health course is suitable for all candidates working with hazardous substances on a regular basis. The content in this course has been developed by qualified chemists and fully satisfies the requirements of the UK COSHH Regulations.

Exam The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.