RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

OBSRDL036

Breaking Containment Awareness

Duration	30 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry (Onshore & Offshore)
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Define ‘breaking containment’ LO2: List the hazards of breaking containment (including the hazards in a system) LO3: Identify legislation and Health and Safety Executive guidance for breaking containment LO4: Describe the risk assessment process for a break in containment LO5: Explain the hierarchy of controlsLO6: Describe the preparation of plant and equipment for a break in containment LO7: Identify the dangers of draining, venting purging and flushing LO8: Identify appropriate personal protective equipment for use during breaking containment LO9: Explain how safety is maintained in the workplace during a break in containment LO10: Identify the components of the work control documents for breaking containment LO11: Describe safe breaking containment practices
Contents	The aim of this course is to provide an awareness of the health and safety issues concerned with breaking containment. It also explains the hazards of the process contents, how the risks are controlled and how to break containment safely.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.