Incident Reporting Awareness (OSHA)

Duration	30 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	Understand Incident Reporting Awareness
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. The OSH Act covers most private sector employers and their workers, in addition to some public sector employers and workers in the 50 states and certain territories and jurisdictions under federal authority. Those jurisdictions include the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Wake Island, Johnston Island, and the Outer Continental Shelf Lands as defined in the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act. Incidents are unplanned, undesired events that adversely affect the completion of a task. Even if there were no injuries or property damage, it is the responsibility of all employees to report all Incidents so they may be properly investigated and analysed.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.
